About the keynote speaker:

Franck Janin is a Jesuit priest. Born in France, he has lived in Belgium for over 40 years, where he joined the Society of Jesus. After studying theology in Brussels and Toronto, he worked successively with university students (as chaplain in Namur), in the formation of the Jesuits (as responsible for the initial formation), in ignatian spirituality (director of the Jesuit Spirituality Centre La Pairelle, Namur), as Major Superior of the Jesuits of South Belgium and Luxembourg and, since 2017, as President of the Conference of the European Provincials. In this capacity he is also President of JESC, with both mandates finishing in August 2023.
